Section 9: Data Protection

Aetna Global Benefits (UK) Limited ('Aetna', 'we') is the data controller of personal data collected and processed for the purposes set out in this document. Aetna considers personal data or personal 'information' to be confidential. We protect the privacy of that information in accordance with applicable privacy laws and regulations, as well as our own company privacy policies.

These laws and regulations include, but are not limited to, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act Privacy Rules (HIPAA Privacy Rules), the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the UK Data Protection Act 2018 and any applicable EU member state legislation and derogations.

We will use your personal data to determine eligibility and provide a quotation to you or to your broker; onboarding you to the plan, process payments, premiums and claims; managing, administering and improving your policy; investigating and responding to complaints; contact you with information about your plan and for the purposes of providing healthcare or wellness advice; fraud prevention together with any other regulatory checks; establish, exercise or defend legal claims or rights and to protect, exercise and enforce our rights, property or safety.

Where your health data is used for any of the above we rely on the insurance condition provided under the UK Data Protection Act 2018, which means we don't need to acquire your consent for the processing.

We retain your personal data for as long as necessary to provide you the benefits under your insurance plan, until such time as any claim under the insurance policy is concluded, until the limitation for exercising any legal rights has expired or for compliance with any legal or regulatory requirements.

We may disclose information about you in various ways, including, but not limited to: health care operations, treatment, disclosure to other covered entities, plan administration, research, business associates, industry regulation, law enforcement, legal proceedings and public welfare.

In all situations other than those described above, we will ask for your written authorization before using or disclosing information about you.

We will not send any personal data or health information outside the EEA unless the appropriate protections are in place, or unless there are emergency medical ground for doing so.

To help us make sure that your personal information remains accurate and up-to-date, please inform us of any changes.

You have the right to access to your personal information, to request correction, erasure, restriction of processing, transfer of your information, and object to the processing of your personal data.

If you would like to exercise any of your rights relating to your personal data, or enquiry any further information, please contact our designated Data Protection Officer:

Section 10: Further information

How to complete this form

- If you are personally seeking reimbursement, we will only issue payment to:
 - the claimant if they are 18 or over
 - the plan holder if the claimant is under 18 and is a dependant under the plan, or
 - the parent or legal guardian named as the primary member, if the claimant is under 18
- Ensure that you are able to receive payment in the method and currency you have requested.
- We reserve the right to pass on any payment charges incurred by us for cancelling the original payment due to inaccurate information submitted to us.
- We will not be responsible for any payment shortfall due to exchange rate fluctuations and/or recipient bank service charges. Please contact your bank for further details.
- If you do not give us the sort code/routing code, BIC/ SWIFT code and/or IBAN number, you may incur additional bank charges and it will result in a delay in us paying your claim. You can find the payment information on your bank statement.
- Payment by foreign draft or cheque in certain currencies can result in long delays. These delays are beyond our control. We will not pay any bank charges incurred in encashing a foreign draft or cheque. We strongly recommend that, wherever possible, you choose to be reimbursed by bank transfer as this is the quickest and safest method of payment.
- We can make payment in most readily traded currencies and to most countries. In the event that we are unable to make payment in the currency or to the country you have specified, we will contact you to confirm an alternative currency. If you do not specify a payment currency, we will pay your claim in the base currency of your plan.
- Your bank may ask you to complete additional paperwork before they can release our payment to you. This may delay your receipt of the payment and is outside our control.
- Whenever coverage provided by any insurance policy is in violation of any US, UN or EU economic or trade sanctions, such coverage shall be null and void. For example, Aetna companies cannot pay for health care services provided in a country under sanction by the United States unless permitted under a written Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) license. Learn more on the US Treasury's website at: www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions
- We will process the claim if the invoices and receipts for the treatment costs incurred contain all of the following:
 - diagnosis of the dental condition treated
 - treatment date
 - type of treatment, including the tooth number, number of surfaces if restoration work was done and/or number of canals if Root Canal Treatment was done, and
 - the dental provider's official stamp

What to send us

Send us the claim within 180 days of the first treatment date. You must send the following items to make sure that we can process your claim:

- the fully completed Claim form
- the original itemised invoice
- the original receipt. We do not accept credit card statements as proof of payment
- a copy of the prescription if you are claiming for medication
- a copy of the investigative tests results if relevant (e.g. x-rays, scans)

Where to send your claim

Send us your claim in one of the ways listed below:

- By logging in to your Health Hub at www.aetnainternational.com and submitting your claim online.
- By email to: EuropeServices@aetna.com.
- By fax to: +44-870-442-4377
